PEOPLE

Queen of the 1967 Homecoming, Miss Joyce Shrader and her escort Rick Ford lead the parade.

The Attendants and their escorts were Lucille Hunsicker and David Nees, Doris Elmore and Steve Brown and Pam Anderson and Ronnie Barker.

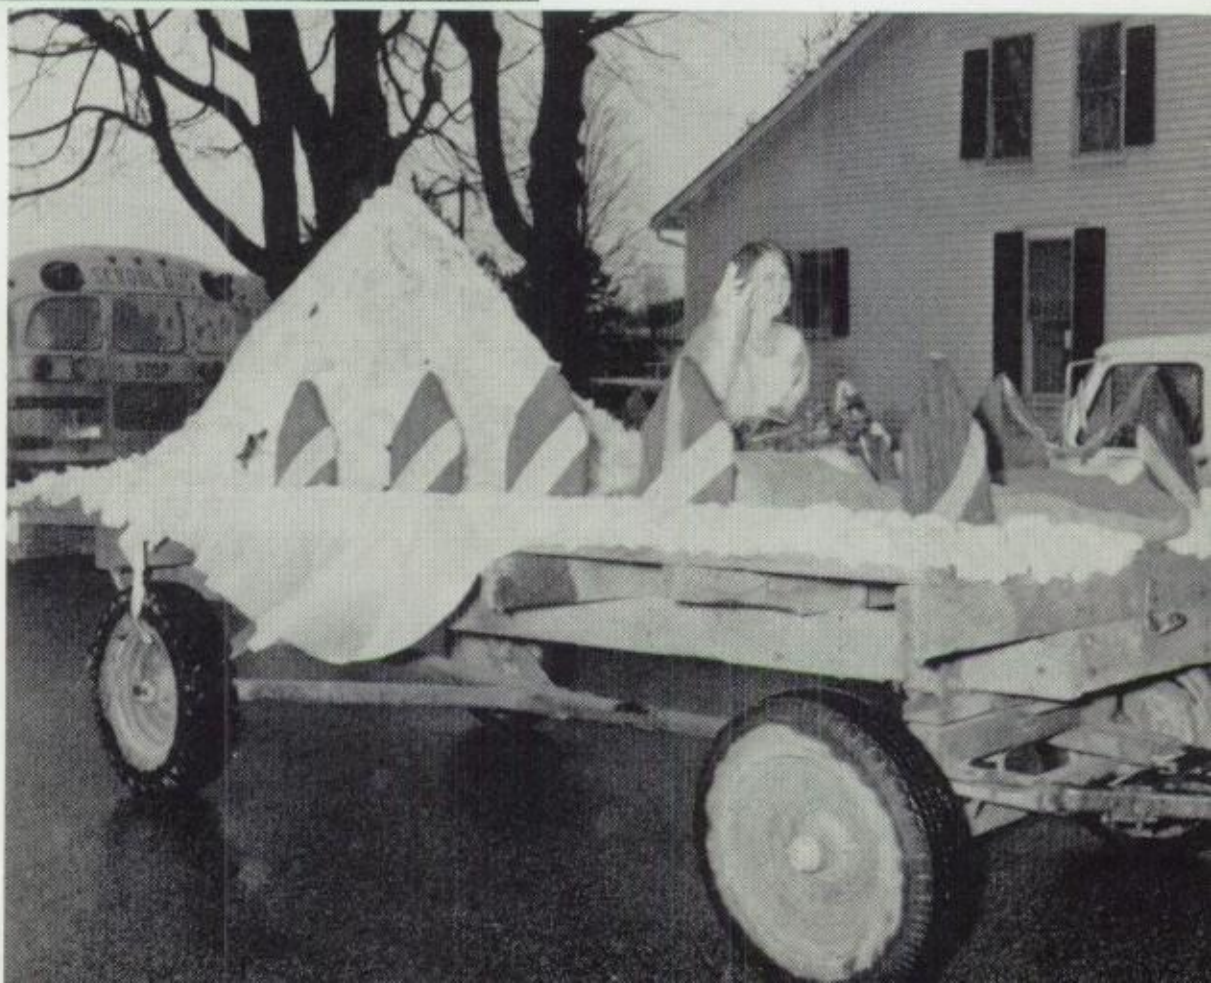

Rain Dampens Second Annual Homecoming Parade

Umbrellas and showers accompanied the parade but even they weren't enough to get the best of our beautiful floats. The winning float, "Like Taking Candy from a Baby", was entered by the sophomore class. Beautiful with its multi colors, it won the hearts of the judges and spectators alike.

Soaring high was the Junior class float with, "Come Ride with Us in Our Victory Balloon". A victory it was, too--88-75 over Eminence.

The "Ten Commandments of Basketball" were displayed on the Freshmen float. They played an important part in our Homecoming score.

Costumes, pretty girls, handsome fellows, games and prizes created fun for all at the annual Halloween Carnival.

Candidates representing their class for King and Queen were: Susie Jent and Gary Collier, Seniors; Dana Monnett and Debbie Stuckey, Freshmen; Diane Cassell and Jimmie Staley, Juniors; and John Pruitt and Anita Stuckey, Sophomores.

When all the votes were counted Miss Susie Jent and Mr. Jimmie Staley were crowned Queen and King of the 1967 Halloween Carnival.

Seniors Welcomed Freshmen

The crowning of Miss Pam Jordan as Queen of Freshmen Initiation climaxed a week of fun for Seniors and Freshmen.

Queen and Attendants with their escorts were: Gerry Hoffa and Pam Anderson, Pam Jordan and Hobe Nickerson, and Pam Rubendall and Jerry Smith.

CLOVERDALE COMMUNITY SCHOOLS' BOARD OF EDUCATION

With the ever-increasing problems of crowded conditions and improving curriculum, the Cloverdale Community School Board met monthly with Superintendent Johnson in the Library of the Community Building.

Members of the Board were: SEATED, Mrs. Lillian Whitaker, Sec., Mr. Wayne Branneman, Pres., and Mr. Russell Sendmeyer, Vice Pres. STANDING: Mr. Arthur Johnson, Supt., Mr. Wendell Nees, Mr. Harley Sutherlin and Mrs. Zerelda John. Mr. Jerry Orman who was also a member was not pictured.

Administration Developed

Mr. Arthur Johnson, who completed his ninth year as superintendent, sought constantly to improve building facilities as well as curriculum expansion. Keeping the two-building complex functioning as a single unit was an unending task. His other duties included acting as purchasing agent for the corporation and advising all financial dealings with the school district.

M.S.--Indiana University
School Administration
Superintendent

MRS. JENNIE PRICE
Indiana University
Elementary Secretary
Corporation Treasurer

Keeping the students of CHS informed of the events of the day, Mr. Cress made announcements each morning in both buildings. Coordinating a school that was experiencing growing pains and crowded conditions into a smooth operating unit kept Mr. Cress and his staff busy. He seemed to be everywhere at once but was never too busy to answer a question or counsel a student.

MRS. BEULAH LEWIS
DePauw University
High School Secretary

MR. CONNIE E. CRESS: B.S.--Indiana Central College; M.S.--Indiana State University; 6th year--Indiana State University; other school attended: Butler, Indiana State.

School Policy

Mrs. Beulah Lewis served as educational secretary in the high school and kept the extra curricular account records.

MR. VIRGIL R. TELGEMEYER
B.S.--Indiana State; M.A.--Indiana State; M.A. in Elementary School Administration; Elementary Principal.

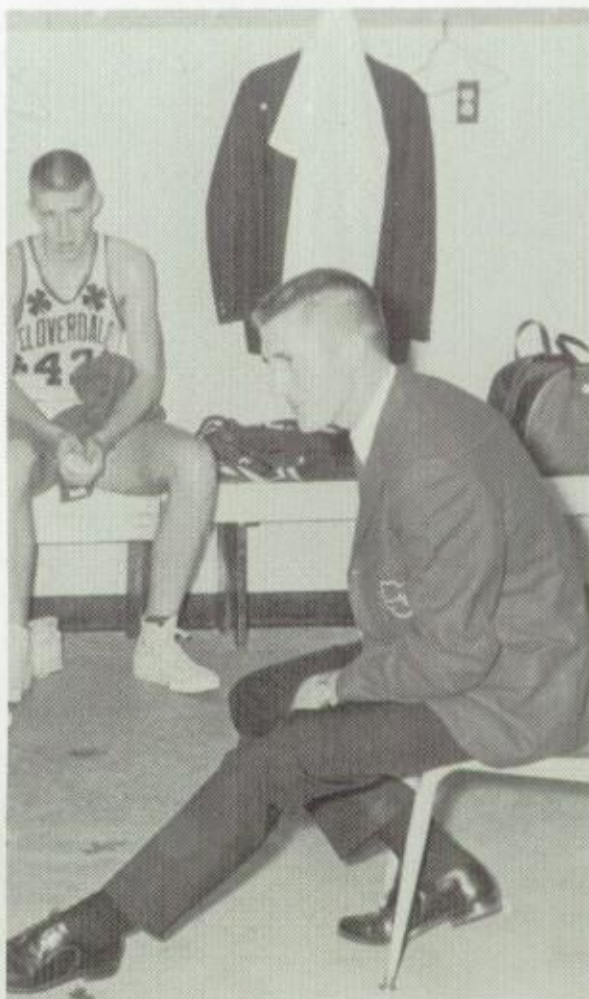

MR. HUGH M. CARTER
B.S.--Indiana State; M.A.--Indiana State; also attended I.S.U.; Instrumental Music--(Band).

MRS. JEANNETTE SHARP
B.S.--Indiana State; Physical Education; Senior class, G.A.A., Pep Club and Cheerleader sponsor.

MR. AL TUCKER
B.S.--Indiana State U.; M.S.--Indiana State U.; P.E., Biology, Dr. Ed.

Those "intimate" little talks by Coach Tucker in the dressing room proved to be very effective on the playing floor.

Practicing for music contest meant sacrificing many hours of free time but when the winners were announced, the students felt it had been worthwhile.

MR. D. W. HAUSER
B.S.--Indiana State; Industrial
Arts; 8th grade sponsor.

MISS BETTY LEE DIERDORF
B.S.--Indiana State; Vocational Home Ec.; F.H.A. and 4-H sponsor.

MR. WALTER R. TILLER
B.S.--N. Missouri State; also attended University of Missouri;
Mathematics, General Science.

Shop classes were very popular with the boys, especially those whose cars
ALWAYS needed "tender loving care."

Learning to be good hostesses was just part of the training given in the Home Ec. classes. Shirley, Diana, Marcia and Vicki thoroughly enjoyed arranging the refreshment table.

MRS. LINDA L. NALLY
B.S.--Indiana Univ.; also attended--Purdue Univ. and Indi-

Freshman class sponsor.

MR. BRUCE J. TONE
A.B.--Indiana Univ; English; Library.

MRS. SUSAN SUNSTEIN
B.S.--Indiana Univ.; French,
French Club and Sophomore class sponsor.

They drilled and drilled and drilled on those elusive parts of speech and still Mr.
Tone handed out the work.

Eighth grade enthusiasm ran high on Homecoming day and they decorated Mr.
Tone's Volkswagon to back the Clovers in their game with the Eels that night.

MRS. VICTORIA FRANKLIN
A.B. --Indiana University; other schools attended--Indiana State, Columbia Univ.; English and Latin; Latin Club and Thespian sponsor.

MR. JAMES M. SCHOPMEYER
B.S. --Purdue Univ.; M.S. --Indiana State U.; also attended--Depauw, Indiana Univ.; Indiana State; Secondary Science and Elementary; Assistant Principal, Guidance Director, National Honor Society, Sponsor.

MRS. MARY LIVEOAK
B.S. --Central Normal College; M.A. --DePauw Univ.; also attended--Indiana State; Voc. Bus. Ed., Shorthand, Intensive Office Lab., Adv. Typing and Office Machines; Yearbook adviser.

Intensive Office Lab students learned responsibility and became acquainted with office routines.

Mrs. Franklin's English 11 found literature to be very interesting through the universality of the theme of "Our Town."

MR. RONALD PURCELL
B.S.--Indiana State; M.S.--Indiana State; Physical Science, Biology; Thespians, Science Club and Junior Class sponsor.

MRS. MARY C. TRUESDEL
B.S.--Indiana State; Indiana Univ., DePauw, Butler Univ. and Univ. of New Mexico; Social Studies.

MR. ROBERT G. HOLMAN
B.S.--Campbellsville College; P.E. and Business Administration; Freshman class sponsor.

Experiments in Mr. Purcell's science class could sometimes be experienced in the entire building when a "delightful" odor was noticed.

With so many crucial issues confronting the Government, the current events presented in Mrs. Truesdel's government class kept up a lively discussion.

MRS. VERA A. ANDERSEN
Bachelor of Music Education--
DePauw Univ.; Music; Chorus and 7th grade sponsor.

MR. RAY A. ANDERSON
A.B. --Indiana State U.; Social
Studies; Co-sponsor 7th grade.

MISS RUTH M. BARKER
B.S. --Indiana State; Business Education.

Mrs. Jennie Price took a "Breather" from office routine by punching student lunch tickets during the noon hour.

With the introduction of the six period day, students took advantage of any free time to study in the library.

Special Staffs Served CHS Students and Faculty

PTO leadership was assumed by Mrs. Don Fidler this year. Officers who assisted her were, Mrs. Betty Lewis, Treas.; Mrs. Ed Edwards, Vice Pres.; and Mrs. Ronald Nickerson, Sec.

The PTO assisted with the purchase of the Honor Society jackets and presented each elementary room with a check to purchase games or anything that was needed in the rooms.

The Clovers extended their winning streak and added more trophies for Mrs. Mary Yount, custodian, to polish and arrange in the various trophy cases.

Mrs. Virginia Meyers, R.N. in the Health Center checked pupil growth and kept adequate health records for each student.

Minor injuries were treated and health recommendations were made to parents when needed.

Supervising and preparing meals for the 875 students of the Cloverdale Community Schools was the task that confronted the cafeteria staff each day.

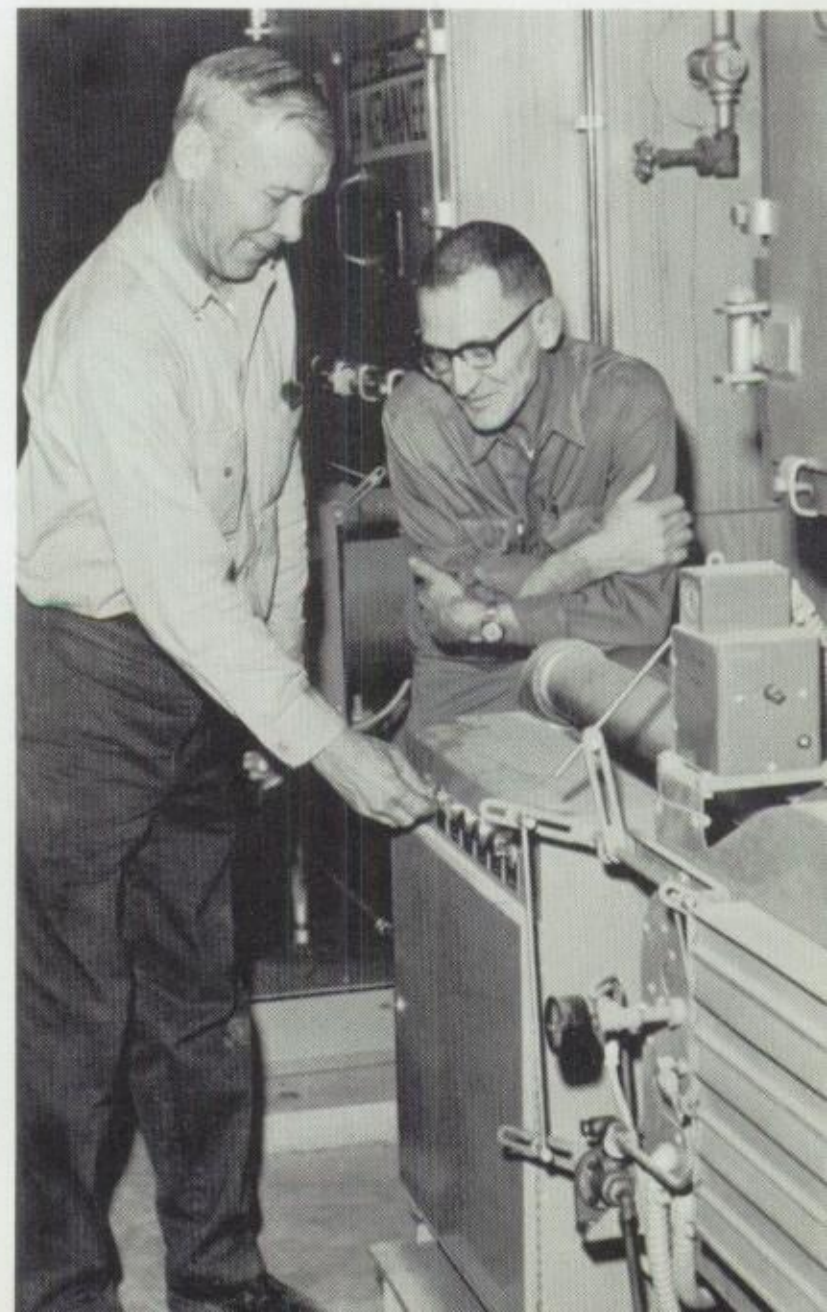

Mrs. Myrtle Whitaker, Manager, was ably assisted by a capable staff. They were: Mrs. Bernice Davis, Mrs. Averill Allen, Mrs. Elnora Clines, Mrs. Marjorie Bowman and Mrs. Whitaker. Tempting Type A meals were served to both students and faculty.

Assisting with the clean-up detail, Herschel Reeves, custodian, was caught in the camera eye.

Ray Woodall, Harold Anderson, Paul Souders and Herschel Reeves composed the staff of custodians who kept the two-building complex in tip-top condition.

Sweeping endless miles of corridors and mopping up after all those busy feet left little time for the relaxing coffee break.

Student Assistants

Assisting Mrs. Lewis as receptionists in the high school office were: SEATED--Doris Elmore, Geraldine Hoskins and Linda Baxter. STANDING--Marsha Harrah, Mary A. Hipps, Kathy Glover, Diana Cassell and Gaye Pittl.

Keeping track of the many volumes in the library didn't seem to work a hardship on the assistant librarians. Under the leadership of Mr. Tone, student librarians assisted fellow students in their search for knowledge. Lending a helping hand were: Patty Terry, Jackie Dugan, Kathy Hunsicker, Joyce Shrader, Karen Hunsicker, Sandy Huber, and Patty Van Winkle.

Days were never happier than those in which the senior projectionists were scheduled for projection operation. There were those times though when it looked as though Jerry Denny, Hobe Nickerson and Gerry Hoffa just might not get the job done.

Tapped for Senior Honors

Being tapped for membership into the National Honor Society was a coveted award for juniors and seniors. Sponsor of the group was the assistant principal, Mr. Schopmeyer. Members were: Roseanna Bothwell, Vivian Whitaker, Lucille Hunsicker, and Diana Meyers. SECOND ROW--Rick Ford, Oren Smyser, Jerry Sutherlin (Jr.), Jim Staley (Jr.), Gerry Hoffa and Jerry Smith.

Studying hard for the DAR test, Vivian Whitaker used every spare moment for boning up on government. Vivian was chosen by members of the senior class and the faculty to represent her school in the county contest.

Assisting Mr. Schopmeyer in the leadership of the National Honor Society were: Lucille Hunsicker, Sec. & Treas.; Rick Ford, Pres.; and Gerry Hoffa, Vice Pres.

Thespians Presented Tops in Entertainment

Setting the stage for the one act play "Why the Chimes Rang" were officers: Vivian Whitaker, Pres.; Annetta Routt, Sec.; Anna Lewis, News Reporter; Shirley Allegree, Treas.; and Gerry Hoffa, Clerk.

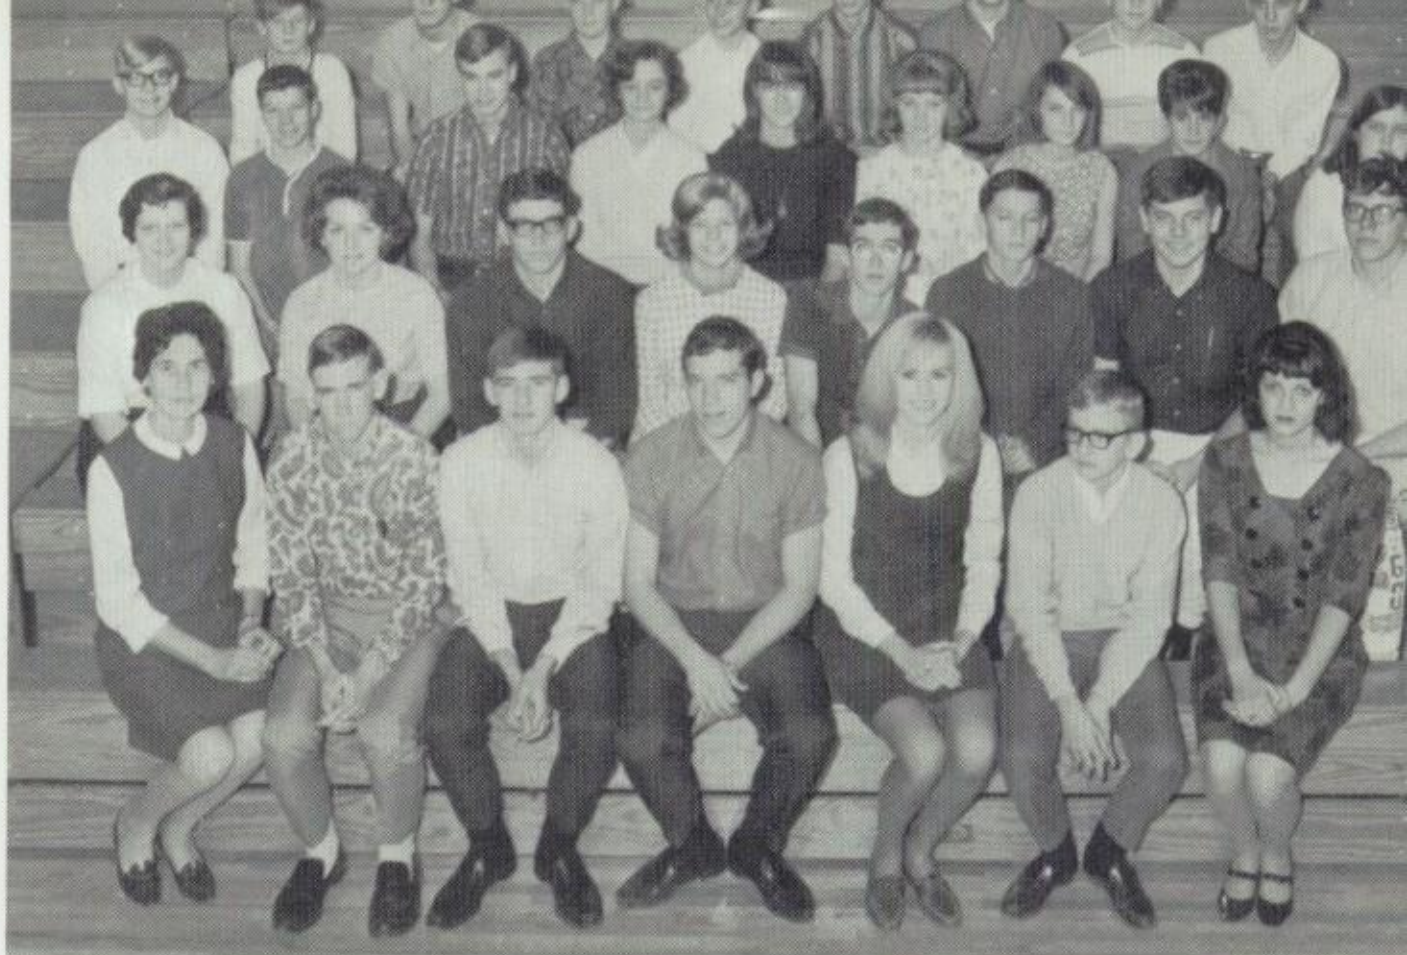

Thespian Troupe 1148 worked long hours to come up with good performances and to develop new talents. Members of the club

Two other one act plays were presented at the same time, "The Brief Debut of Tildy" and "Of Poems, Youth, and Spring." Also given for the student body was "Three on a Bench." A musical was given in the spring.

Latin Club Furthered Interests in the Classics

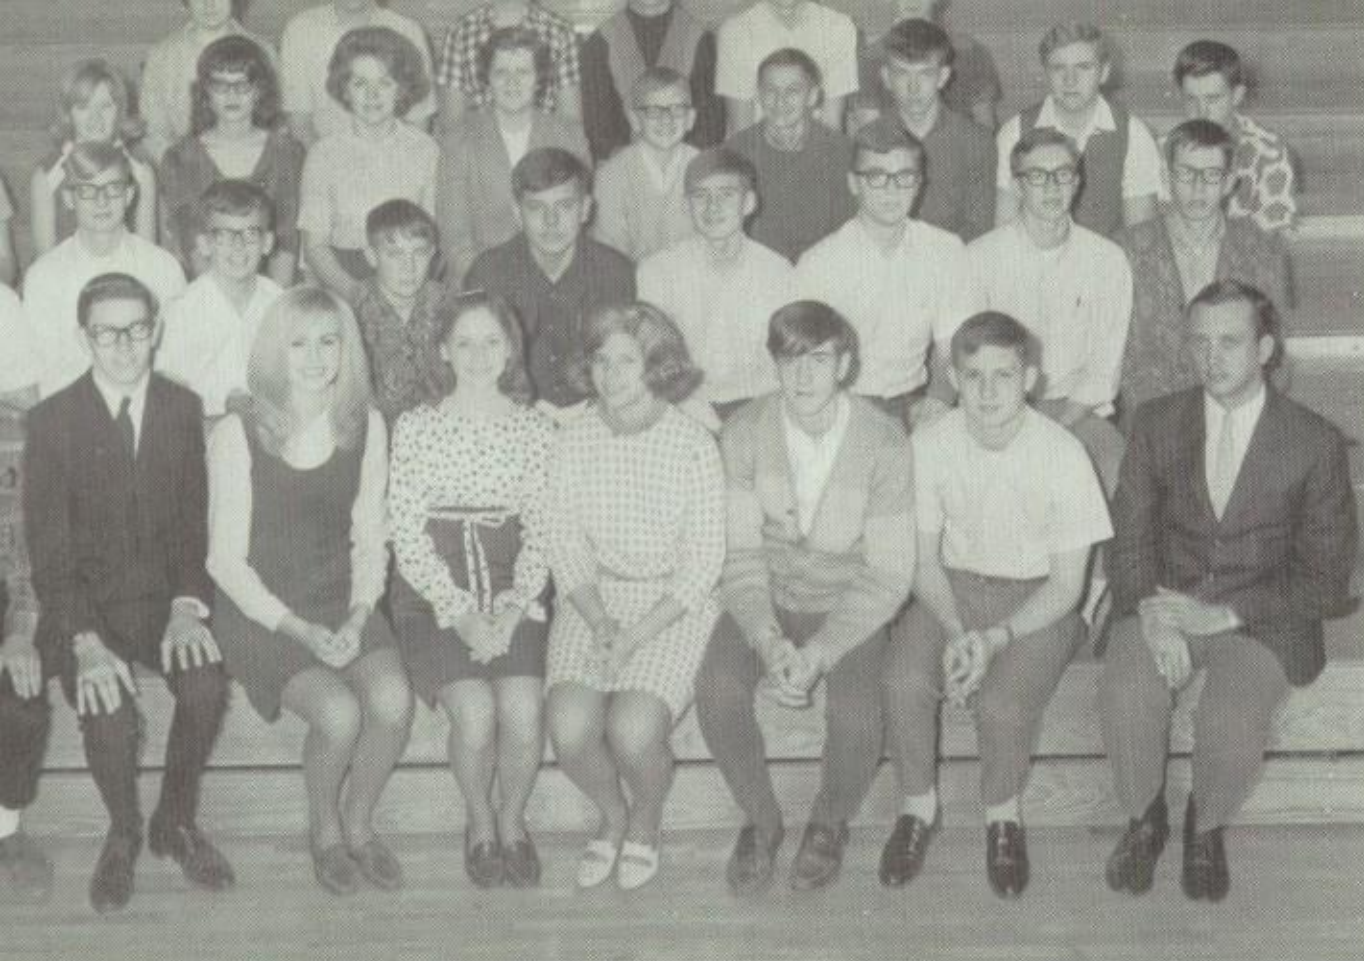

Members were: BOTTOM ROW: Sponsor, Mrs. Franklin, J. Sutherland, J. McCullough, H. Nickerson, A. Lewis, G. Goss, R. Bothwell; SECOND ROW: V. Whitaker, L. Hunsicker, J. Denny, S. Allegree, F. Whicker; BACK ROW--D. Meyers, G. Cline, M. Jones, T. Hoffa, K. Monnett, F. Coffin.

Officers were: SEATED--Diana Denny, Sec.; Anna Lewis, Treas.; STANDING--Mr. Purcell, Sponsor; Vernon Bothwell, Librarian; John Pruitt, Vice Pres.; Jerry Smith, Pres.; Oren Smyser, Lab Assistant.

Members of the Student Council who were elected by their fellow classmates helped the administration formulate the policies of the school.

4-H Provided Profitable Summer

Who said summer was boring? Each summer young people all over the Country have found fun and lots to do in their local 4-H Club. Projects ranged from cooking to electricity. There were honors to earn, money to win, ribbons to win, and then just the feeling of accomplishment.

FHA Played Santa to Glen Home

F.H.A. officers were: Vicki Alexander, News Reporter; Marcia Kennedy, Historian; Diana Meyers, Projects Chairman; Shirley Sutherlin, Recreation Leader; Annetta Routt, Song Leader; Shelley Orman, Pres.; Marlene Hewitt, Treasurer; Patty Hoffa, Public Relations; Paula Orman, Recreation Leader; Julie Fisher, Secretary; Doris Elmore, Vice Pres.; Linda Sims, Song Leader.

Some of our projects included carolling at the Donna Nursing Home, and Trick or Treating to raise funds to buy sleds for the Glenn Home, Apple Brownie Day, Downtown window displays, and a tea for F.H.A. mothers.

Chorus Enlivened Community Functions

The chorus came to life under the direction of Mrs. Andersen. Our many performances included singing for P.T.O., Choral Contest, and providing music for Thespian plays.

Officers were: Gary Collier, Pres. and Patti Jo Ziegelman, Sec.

John Pruitt was selected Drum Major of the Cloverdale Marching Band. John played first trumpet in Concert Band and was a member of the Band Council.

John conferred many hours with Mr. Carter and planned the lively band shows for half time activities at the home basketball games. The performances varied from the "Worms Crawl In, the Worms Crawl Out" to a more serious note of dedication to the graduating seniors in the band.

John Pruitt Led Marching Band

Adding that extra sparkle, style, and charm to the Marching Clovers were the Cloverette Corp. Flashing red and white uniforms stepped out in front of the Marching Band keeping step to the beat of "Music to Watch Girls By" and "Georgie Girl." Members of the corp were Patti Jo Ziegelman, Ena Whitaker, Anna Lewis, Shirley Allegree, and Linda Sims.

Students Enthusiastically Practiced for Contest

Solo and Ensemble Contest was looked forward to by members of the music department. Music was selected early in the fall for the contest which was held at DePauw University on January 27. Contestants were: FRONT ROW, S. Cassell, S. Powell, M. Broadstreet, P. Black, L. Wells, S. Buchanan, J. Williams, J. Smith, P. Ziegelman and B. Knoy. SECOND ROW: C. McKamey, B. Cummings, D. Everything came up Clovers this year for the Clovettes. You could tell they were from Cloverdale because they were a winning team! They were: FRONT ROW: Diana Denny, Margo Riley, Gail Spires, Ena Whitaker, Terri Haltom. SECOND ROW: Vicki Haltom, Joyce Shrader, Annia Lewis, Mrs. Sharp, Portia Collier, Judy Kirton, and Vivian Whitaker.

Experience was the best teacher for the Jr. Varsity this year. They gave their opponents a good run for their points and were anxiously anticipating the day when they would play varsity ball. They were: FRONT ROW: Linda Sims, Juanita Mugg, Pam Rubendall, Linda Sublett. SECOND ROW: Patti Van Winkle, Bonnie Van Pelt, Debbie Stuckey, Debbie Alexander, and Pam Anderson.

Running, throwing, and jumping, were some of the familiar words of the track squad. C.H.S. was proud to have these girls representing their school in the track meets: Margo Riley, Judy Kirton, Joyce Shrader, Gail Spires, Annie Lewis, and Portia Collier.

In the volleyball tournament this year the "Flower Children", using all of their flower power, popped up with the highest scores.

They were: Pam Rubendall, Shirley Tague, Patti Ziegelman, Sue Powell, Paula McClure, Nancie Ginn, Vicki Haltom, and Sheila Anderson.

They really blossomed out with their blue ribbons.

These senior girls proudly displayed their well earned sweaters which they received after achieving their goal of 250 points. They were: Marcia Kennedy, Terri Haltom, Vicki Alexander, Vicki Haltom, Shelley Orman, Vivian Whitaker, Diana Meyers, and not pictured Cora Bacon.

"Look out pins!" That was the cry of the seniors when Vicki Alexander stepped up to bowl. Look at that form!

The highest award that was given in G.A.A. was the state plaque. In order to receive this award a girl must have passed ten tests, each in a different sport, and earned 350 points in regular activities. Those receiving this honor award were: Terri Haltom, Vicki Alexander, and Diana Meyers.

These seven seniors, Marcia Kennedy, Sheila Anderson, Vicki Alexander, Shelley Orman, Diana Meyers, Cora Bacon, and Terri Haltom were among others in G.A.A. that enjoyed bowling very much this year.

G.A.A. went into its 15th year under the capable leadership of the 1967-1968 officers: Gail Spires, President; Terri Haltom, Vice President; Vivian Whitaker, Secretary; Diana Meyers, Treasurer; Ena Whitaker and Vicki Haltom, Song Leaders and Margo Riley, News Reporter.

The Girl's Athletic Association is an organization designed to give girls a chance to participate in athletics, and develop new friendships. Under the guidance of their sponsors, Mrs. Jeannette Sharp, and Mrs. Rita Garrett, they learned to develop their skills in basketball, volleyball, tumbling, bowling, and baseball.

Mrs. Sharp and Mrs. Garrett are sporting their Sponsor sweaters that the girls presented to them for Christmas.

Cheerleaders Boosted Spirit

Junior Varsity

Cheerleaders, whether they were Varsity, Junior Varsity or Junior High, spent week after week practicing. Meetings were also set aside to prepare skits for the pep rallies.

Varsity cheerleaders attended the Cheerleader Conference at Indiana U. and were members of the National Cheerleaders Assoc.

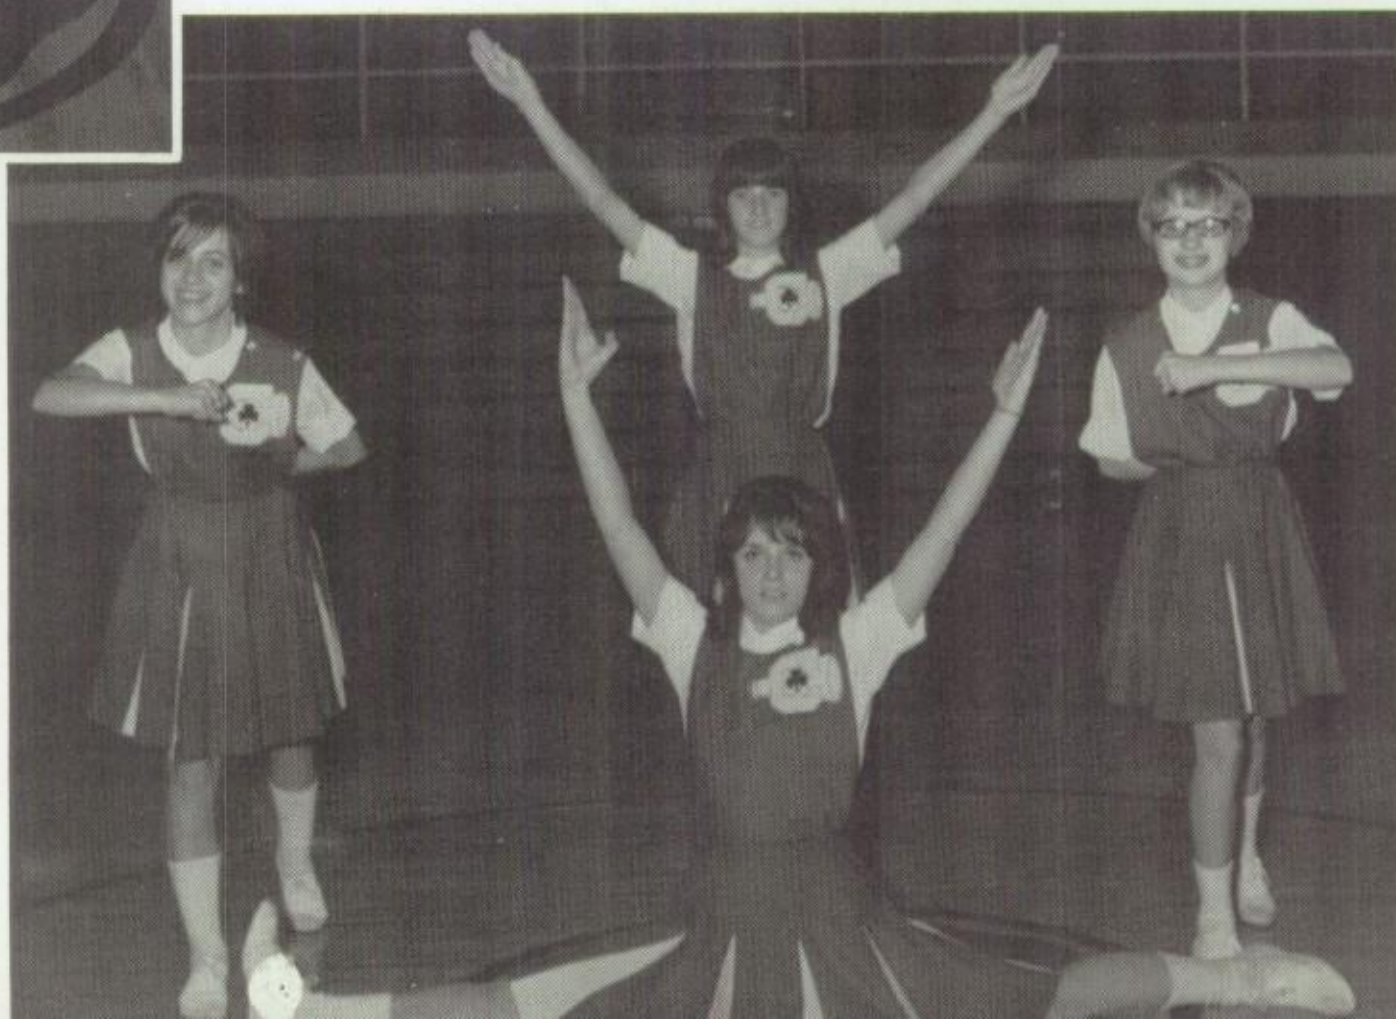

Junior Varsity members were: Gaye Smith, Joyce Shrader and Pam Jordan.

Varsity Cheerleaders were: Diana Denny, Patti Jo Ziegelman, Vicki Haltom and Portia Collier.

Junior High members were, STANDING, Debbie Thomas, Kristi Lewis and Pam Ziegelman. SEATED, Nancy Stevens.

Officers Guide Classes

Moving one step farther along the educational ladder, the Sophomores had new curricula offered to them. Beginning typing, general business and drivers' ed. were popular courses. Class rings were the topic of the year and also the Homecoming float which won first place in the parade.

Class officers who worked diligently with their sponsors were: Charles Coon, Pres., Joyce Shrader, Sec., Portia Collier, Treas., and John Pruitt, Vice Pres.

FRESHMEN CLASS OFFICERS

Surviving the crucial initiation period, the Freshmen boldly took their place with the other classes and asserted themselves as full-fledged members of CHS. Guiding their class in their decisions were the following officers: Pam Anderson, Vice Pres., Juanita Mugg, News Reporter, Debbie Stuckey, Sec., Pam Rubendall, Treas., Roddy Ray, Student Council and Pam Jordan, Pres.

That all important Junior year finally arrived and with it all the responsibilities of the selling of concessions at home basketball games. Officers who made the decisions were: Patti Jo Ziegelman, Sec., Jim Staley, Vice Pres., Jerry Sutherlin, Pres., and Patty Hoffa, Treas.

These Were Outstanding in Home Ec. and 4-H

Vivian Whitaker received one of the highest honors given in 4-H. The "Indiana 4-H Key Club Award" is given for outstanding work in Junior Leadership. Vivian has been in 4-H work for eight years and an active Junior Leader for three years. Vivian's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Charles Whitaker.

Representing her school in the Betty Crocker contest, Shelley Orman possessed the "know how" of good homemaking. Shelley had the top score and was accorded this honor.

This year an award was given to an outstanding senior girl who was enrolled in the field of home economics.

Selection was made on the basis of homemaking ability, cooperation in and out of class, attitude toward others, participation in class and outside activities, scholastic ability and accepting responsibility.

Qualifying on all of these qualifications, Diane Meyers was chosen as "Best All Around Homemaker of the Year".

Efficiency and hard work are synonymous with our sponsor, Mrs. Liveoak, who checked and double checked finished materials to make sure they were ready for publication.

Co-editing the yearbook were Lucille Hunsicker and Roseanna Bothwell. Working and learning with a well taught staff made the job easier and very rewarding.

Responsibility for

A great deal of talking and a persuasive personality were needed to sell 250 year-books but Janie Booker and Sue Minnick, our Circulation Staff, did just that. A new position on the staff this year, Index Editor, was held by Susie Jent.

The advertising staff set a new sales record this year. Vivian Whitaker, Diana Meyers, Steve Brown, Ronnie Barker, and Vicki Alexander sold advertising to the local merchants and those in the surrounding areas.

Yearbook Staff

Section Editors had a hard time guessing who's who. The staff consisted of Shirley Sutherlin, Terri Haltom, Mary Ann Hipps, and Linda Williams, not pictured.

Annetta Routt, Activities Editor, spent many hours cropping and mounting pictures of the different activities.

Intensive Office Lab Prepared Future Employees

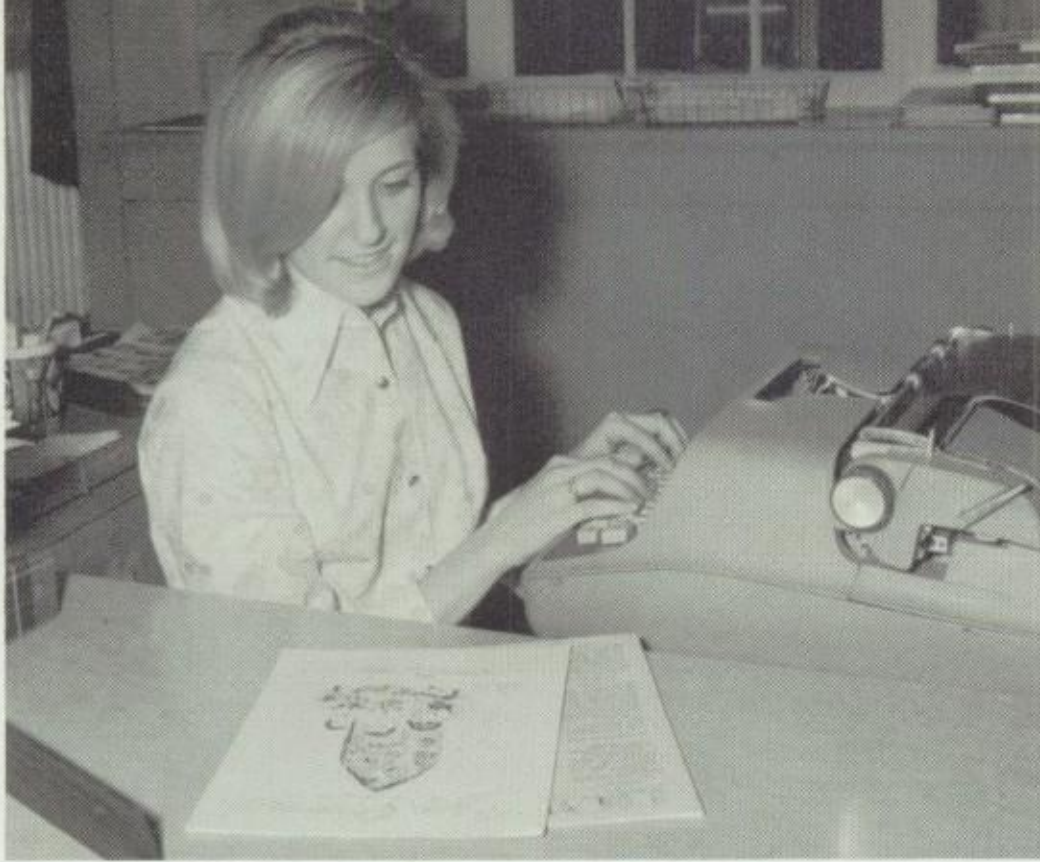

The Advisory Committee for the Intensive Office Lab provided suggestions for improvement in business training for job entry positions. Composed of local business men and school officials, the group met quarterly in the Library of the Community Building.

Members were: SEATED, Mr. Connie E. Cress, Principal; Mr. O. B. Foster, Chairman; Mr. Harley Sutherlin, and Mr. Byron Snyder, Sec. STANDING: Mr. Arthur L. Johnson, Superintendent; Mr. Cedric Ray, Mr. Robert Patten and Mr. James Schopmeyer, Guidance Counselor.

Senior girls who had indicated their career objective in business were: Vicki Alexander, Sheila Anderson, Jane Booker, Kathy Glover, Terri Haltom, Vicki Haltom, Geraldine Hoskins, Mary Ann Hipps, Susie Jent, Marcia Kennedy, Diana Meyers, Sue Minnick, Sheila Orman and Shirley Sutherlin.

Cutting the stencil for the front page of the CLOVER LEAF was a very painstaking job but Vicki Haltom seemed to enjoy difficult tasks.

Marcia Kennedy's flair for drawing was put to good use in the many illustrations that were found in the CLOVER LEAF.

Intensive Office Lab Edited Clover Leaf

Mary Ann Hipps, Geraldine Hoskins and Diana Meyers were kept busy typing the "dummies" from the copy that was turned in by the news reporters.

This year the Intensive Office Lab assumed the responsibility of editing the CLOVER LEAF.

Editorship was rotated among Sheila Anderson, Susie Jent and Vicki Haltom.

Meeting the deadline often found the staff pressured for time but Sheila, Terri, Shirley and Diana could still retain their cheerful dispositions.

Plastic gloves were introduced into use in operating the mimeograph this year. Even with the use of all "cover ups," Susie Jent found the job quite messy.

Sue Minnick and Vicki Alexander saw that the paper was circulated and extras were sold to swell the balance of the CLOVER LEAF fund.

Being a member of the scholastic Top Ten represented long hours of study and "brain work". Those achieving the title of "tops" were: Annetta Routt, Diana Meyers, Shelly Orman, Oran Smyser, Susie Jent, Hobe Nickerson, Lucille Hunsicker, Gerry Hoffa, Roseanna Bothwell and Vivian Whitaker.

Delegates to the Boys' and Girls' State Conferences were introduced to government practices first hand. Those chosen to spend the action-filled week at Indiana University were Vivian Whitaker, Hobe Nickerson, Lucille Hunsicker, Jerry Smith, and Terrie Haltom.

SENIOR CLASS OFFICERS

Having reached the top of the educational ladder, the Seniors enjoyed their status as BIG WHEELS. Chosen to lead their class during their senior year were: Hobe Nickerson, Pres., Rick Ford, Vice Pres., Diana Meyers, Treas. and Lucille Hunsicker, Sec.

Mrs. Jeannette Sharp sponsored their class for the second year having served as junior sponsor.

IN MEMORIAM

Tragedy touched the senior class on October 7 when Suzan Barnhart was fatally injured in a automobile accident.

Suzan whose parents were Mr. and Mrs. Carlyle Collins would have been a twelve-year senior having attended Cloverdale her entire school years. She was head assistant librarian and a member of the high school chorus.
